

BIO - DE POET I. FARRELL

WINSTON FARRELL is a graduate of the University of Leeds with a Masters in Theatre and Development Studies. A theatre practitioner and poet, Farrell has forty years of experience within the Barbadian cultural landscape as an actor, stage director and drama tutor. An award winning playwright and recipient of the Frank Collymore Literary Endowment for poetry, Farrell has three collections of poems and a number of recordings of his riddim poetry. His collection, BAREFOOT ON ICE, won Gold at NIFCA and the Governor General Award for Excellence in Literary Arts in 2015. Farrell is well known for his popular Bus Man poem.